

CALL FOR PAPERS

4th International Conference on Economic and Business Trends Shaping the Future (EBTSF-23)

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the Call for Papers for the 4th International Conference on Economic and Business Trends Shaping the Future. The conference will be a hybrid event taking place on 9-10 November 2023, at the Faculty of Economics-Skopje, Ss Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje, Republic of North Macedonia.

All accepted and presented papers will be assigned DOI number, available online and submitted for indexation. All conference papers will be published in Conference Proceedings, indexed in reputable international databases. The conference aims to enhance the global visibility of the research presented by offering the opportunity to submit research papers for publication. Selected papers will be offered to be extended and published in the Economy, Business & Development journal, and other reputable journals.

Please feel free to share this call for papers with your colleagues and PhD students.

We are looking forward to meeting our colleagues and friends in person after a long period of restrictions and distance communication. Join us in Skopje - the cross-section where east meets west, presenting an interesting blend of cultures with warm hospitality and even warmer chestnuts in November that the whole city smells of ☺

All the best,

Organizing Committee
