

DEPARTMENT OF E-BUSINESS

The Department of E-business provides a cutting-edge environment for exploring the digital transformation of global markets, focusing on automated and data-driven businesses.

Members

6 full-time professors and 7 teaching and research assistant.

Projects

Recent activities include the organization of DIGIT EDU 2025, the summer school 2025 “AI in Action” and the JOKER project.

Awards and recognition

Best presentation award at the LIMEN 2025 conference in Zurich, Switzerland

Key areas

E-business, digital economy, digital innovations, logistics & supply chain management, digital marketing, business programming, business process design

Events

Planned events include summer school 2026 and DIGIT EDU 2026