

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

The Chair of Economics combines economic theory and applied analysis to study markets, institutions, economic systems and economic policy, preparing students to address real-world economic challenges and support informed policy and business decisions.

Members

The chair consists of 11 Full Professors, 1 Assistant Professor and 2 Teaching and Research Assistants.

Projects

- One Erasmus+ KA2 Cooperation Partnership project;
- Participation in Cost actions;
- One project funded by Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje.

Awards and recognition

Best Scientist in Social Sciences award granted by the Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje.

Key areas

Microeconomics; Macroeconomics; Development Economics; Environmental Economics; Labour Economics; Public and Welfare State Economics; Business and Government; Econometrics.

Events

Nobel Laureates in Economic Sciences; Economics Talks