

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Chair of Finance offers comprehensive expertise in financial markets, banking, corporate finance, international finance, and public finance. It combines modern financial theory with applied analysis, focusing on risk management, policy evaluation, and financial decision-making.

Members

6 full-time professors and 1 teaching and research assistant.

Projects

National and international projects in the financial sector, local public finance, and financial literacy

Key areas

Finance, Financial Markets, Financial Management, Monetary Policy, Banking, International Finance, Public Finance

Awards and recognition

Chair members combine high scientific output in the field of finance with recognized positions in the governing bodies of financial institutions and government.

Events

Implemented workshops, hackathons, summer schools and research projects in collaboration with commercial banks, the National Bank, relevant government institutions, regulatory authorities, pension companies, and other key financial institutions.