

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS AND STATISTICS

Shapes future economists through impactful research and excellence in teaching, building strong quantitative and analytical capacities for a data-driven world.

Members

6 full-time professors and 2 assistant professors.

Projects

Participation of the Chair's members in Horizon and Erasmus+ KA220 projects as well as two nationally funded projects.

Awards and recognition

Three Best Scientists in Social Sciences awards granted by the Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje and one Young Researcher award by the ISA.

Key areas

Mathematical and statistical principles in business and economics, population dynamics, quality and process control, business analytics, quantitative economic and financial modelling.

Events

The Chair organized the 11th International Summer School and regularly promotes scientific work through the Quant Talks events.